We Remember Them by Roland B. Gittelsohn

In the rising of the sun and in its going down,
we remember them.

*In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter,
we remember them.*

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring,
we remember them.

*In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
we remember them.*

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
we remember them.

*In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
we remember them.*

When we are weary and in need of strength,
we remember them.

*When we are lost and sick at heart,
we remember them.*

When we have joys we yearn to share,
we remember them.

*So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us,
as we remember them.*

Gittelsohn, R. B. (1975). Gates of Prayer. London: Central Conference of American Rabbis and Union of Liberal and Progressive Synagogues, p. 552.
