

	Wheel of the Year Holidays &amp; Their Themes
1.	Samhain / Celtic New Year We honor our dead &amp; commit ourselves to the future.	October
2.	Yule / Winter Solstice We honor the longest night of the year &amp; the restorative power of rest &amp; reflection.	December
3.	Imbolc: Time of Personal Inspiration We reflect on our skills &amp; articulate our creative goal for the year.	February
4.	Ostara / Spring Equinox We honor the reawakening of the Earth in spring &amp; the shift from the reflective dark to the active light seasons of the year.	March
5.	Beltane / The Gathering Season Returns We honor our new &amp; renewed relationships.	May
6.	Litha / Summer Solstice We honor the longest day of the year &amp; the opportunity to make the most of our time in the sun.	June
7.	Lughnasa: Time of Community Labor We honor the abilities we bring together at work &amp; play that benefit the community.	August
8.	Mabon / Autumn Equinox We honor the Earth's bounty at harvest time &amp; the shift from the light to the dark seasons of the year.	September